No. 33] NEW DELHI, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1959/SRAVANA 24, 1881

PART II—Section 3—Sub-section (i)

General Statutory Rules (including orders, bye-laws etc. of a general character) issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by Central Authorities (other than the Administrations of Union Territories).

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS*New Delhi, the 4th August 1959*

G.S.R. 935.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and clauses (a), (b), (d) and (e) of sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Supreme Court Judges (Conditions of Service) Act, 1958 (41 of 1958), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Supreme Court Judges Rules, 1959.

2. Special disability leave.—The rules for the time being in force with respect to the grant of special disability leave in relation to an officer of the Central Civil Services, Class I, who has entered service on or after the 16th July, 1931, and who may be disabled by injury caused in, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position, shall apply in relation to a Judge, subject to the modification that the monthly rate of allowance payable to a Judge while on such leave shall be as specified in the First Schedule to these rules.

3. Extraordinary pensions and gratuities.—The rules for the time being in force with respect to the grant of extraordinary pensions and gratuities in relation to an officer of the Central Civil Services, Class I, who has entered service on or after the 1st April, 1937, and who may suffer injury or die as a result of violence in the course of and as a consequence of the due performance of his official duties, shall apply in relation to a Judge, subject, however, to the modification that references in those rules to tables of injury, gratuities and pensions, and of family gratuities and pensions, shall be construed as references to the tables in the Second Schedule to these rules.

4. Residence of Judges.—Each Judge shall be entitled without payment of rent to the use of a furnished residence throughout his term of office and for a period of fifteen days immediately thereafter, and no charge shall fall on the Judge personally in respect of the maintenance of such residence. This concession shall also be admissible to the members of the family of a Judge who dies while in service, for a period of fifteen days immediately after his death.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, “residence” includes the staff quarters and other buildings appurtenant thereto, and the garden thereof, and “maintenance” in relation to a residence includes the payment of local rates and taxes but excludes the charges on account of water and electricity consumed which shall be borne by the Judge himself.

This rule shall be deemed to have come into force on the 26th January, 1950.

5. Facilities for medical treatment and accommodation in hospitals.—In respect of facilities for medical treatment and accommodation in hospitals, the provisions of the All India Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1954, shall apply to a Judge as they apply to a member of the Indian Administrative Service and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 26th January, 1950.

6. Conditions of service where no express provision is made in the Act.—The conditions of service of a Judge of the Supreme Court for which no express provision has been made in the Supreme Court Judges (Conditions of Service) Act, 1958, shall be, and shall from the commencement of the Constitution be deemed to have been determined by the rules for the time being applicable to a member of the Indian Administrative Service holding the rank of Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTE.—Cases relating to reimbursement of medical charges or any other matter covered by rule 5 or rule 6 which have been decided before the date of publication of these rules in the Official Gazette, shall not be reopened unless it is specifically so desired by the Judge concerned.

7. Decision of question.—If any question arises about the interpretation of the provisions of these rules, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

8. Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall have effect so as to give to a Judge who is serving as such on the date of publication of these rules in the Official Gazette less favourable terms in respect of his privileges than those to which he would have been entitled, if these rules had not been framed.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

(See rule 2)

PUBLIC DEBT RULES, 1946

New Delhi, the 7th August, 1959

G.S.R. 937.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (18 of 1944), the Central Government hereby makes the following amendments to the Public Debt Rules, 1946, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section, namely:—

Amendments

In the said rules,

1. In rule 2 after clause (9), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

“(10) “scheduled bank” means a bank for the time being included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934), and

(11) “co-operative society” means a society registered or deemed to have been registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912) or under any other law for the time being in force relating to co-operative societies and includes a co-operative bank so registered”.

2. After rule 8-A, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"8-B. Purchase of Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates through Scheduled Banks, Co-operative Banks and Co-operative Societies.

- (1) Where an application for investment in Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates has been signed by a scheduled bank or a co-operative society purporting to do so on behalf of another person, the Public Debt Office may, if so requested by such bank or society, indicate on the face of the certificate, in addition to the name of the person on whose behalf the application purports to have been made, the name of the bank or society making the application.
- (2) Where a Treasury Savings Deposit Certificate has been issued in the manner indicated in sub-rule (1), the bank or society whose name appears on the Treasury Savings Deposit Certificate may be regarded by the Public Debt Office as being the duly constituted agent of the person on whose behalf the application is purported to have been made for all purposes connected with such certificate and, in particular, as having been authorised by such person to receive all payments and give effective discharge on his behalf".

Explanatory Note

The purport of the amendment is to allow the facility of purchase of 10-Year Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates by scheduled banks, co-operative banks and co-operative societies on behalf of their clients.
